Once registered as UniTo personnel, you will have right to all google education services including:

unlimited space disk on Google Drive (istitutional, not personal)

mail

other Google services as calendar, tasks etc.

The PhD programme managers have another UniTo google account

mailaddress: dottorato.csls@unito.it

In the associated UniTO Drive, the managers will set-up your personal folders, in which common documents as Reports, Certificates etc., will be inserted and accessible to you and the staff.

Please note that you will have access to your institutional folders only when you are identified as UniTo member (you will not have access if you are logged in Google as pincopallino@gmail.com or any other service).

Therefore, go to UniTO, login, then find Services in the banner and access from there.

Advanced Users

You may also install and run the corporate Google Drive File Stream (similar but different from Google Backup and Sync), but note that it may be difficult to run it on the same computer together with your personal Drive Folder.

Consider using only UniTo drive for all your work !

Ask your Tutor the names and addresses of the ITC staff in the Department where you work or you are affiliated with (for external students).

They will help you solving problems.

Formal activities:

Biological Students → zeroing courses in Mats, Physics, Informatics

Quantitative Students → zeroing courses in Biochem, Genetics, MolBiol, Cell Biol+Physiol)

Timing: to be setup with your Profs, but «before» Seminars

Seminars:

- a. Concentrated: between the last week of February and the first weeks of March, each year. Usually takes 2 weeks.
- b. Sparse, either organized by the Faculty or of your choice.

Reporting:

Every year, in September, Students will Report their advancements with both a written report and a Presentation (oral).

You will be given a LogBook of these activities to collect Teachers' signatures: you are expected to reach a minimum number of credits.

Participation to Formal activities and to Seminars is mandatory !!
